PRESS RELEASE

Terry Winters: Table of Contents
May 14 – June 26, 2021

Matthew Marks is pleased to announce Terry Winters: Table of Contents, the next exhibition in his gallery at 522 West 22nd Street. The exhibition includes seven paintings on linen, five paintings on paper, and a set of twenty-six grisaille drawings. All are being exhibited for the first time.

Winters's work returns us to the life of abstraction on molecular, cosmic, and compositional levels. His materials inform his images, often in surprisingly direct fashion. The paintings on linen, most measuring seven feet tall by five feet wide, are made with oil, wax, and resin. With careful attention to the attributes of his pigments, Winters achieves a color palette of exceptional depth and vibrancy. The paintings on paper, each filling a large sheet from edge to edge, are created through a parallel process, and the flatness of their support transmits both the immediacy of his markings and the imaginary spaces of their content.

Drawing has long been a central component of Winters's art. (In 2018 the Drawing Center in New York presented "Terry Winters: Facts and Fictions," a four-decade survey of his drawings.) On view here is Table of Contents (2020), a series of twenty-six works in graphite, ink, and wax. Executed on tab dividers designed for three-ring binders, these drawings depict a range of structures and patterns, and vividly demonstrate the medium's generative role in his practice.

Terry Winters (b. 1949) lives and works in New York City and Columbia County, NY. His work has been the subject of one-person exhibitions at museums across the United States and Europe, including the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York, the Museum of Fine Arts in Boston, Kunsthhaus Graz in Austria, the Irish Museum of Modern Art in Dublin, Kunsthalle Basel, the Whitechapel Gallery in London, and the Whitney Museum of American Art in New York.

Terry Winters: Table of Contents is on view by appointment at 522 West 22nd Street from May 14 to June 26, 2021. To make an appointment, please click here. For additional information, please contact Jacqueline Tran at 212-243-0200 or jacqueline@matthewmarks.com.
